

We need to keep local traffic and weather on xm satellite radio. as a truck driver, I depend on the clear signals to find out what is going on in major cities. Many times am radios signals are interferred with by weather or other am radio stations. xm provides us with a clear signal at all times so we can plan our trips into and through cities.